

'Avedon Fashion' In Boston Aug. 10

BOSTON, MASS. — On view August 10–January 17 at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, "Avedon Fashion 1944–2000" will feature the fashion photographs of Richard Avedon (1923–2004). It includes approximately 150 works — of spontaneity, drama and flair — depicting spirited modern women leading glamorous lives.

Many famous models are featured, such as Suzy Parker, Dovima, Twiggy, Veruschka and Lauren Hutton. Included are iconic images as well as rare archival material, such as contact sheets, proof prints and magazine layouts, all borrowed from the artist's estate.

The first comprehensive survey of the American photographer's fashion work, this touring exhibition was organized by the International Center of Photography in cooperation with the Richard Avedon Foundation, New York City.

The museum is at 465 Huntington Avenue. For more information, www.mfa.org or 617-267-9300.
