

CFA Book Auction

July's "pick" auction features books on Connecticut history, regional history, fiction (some signed), travel and adventure, several volumes of Connecticut Acts and Laws from the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries, finance, children's literature and several boxes of ephemera from several New England estates and one library. Of interest -- From Colonel to Subaltern: Some Keys for Horseowners by McTaggart (1928) signed limited edition, California and the West by Charis and Edward Weston (1940) first edition, The Game by Jack London (1905) first edition, The Seven Seas by Rudyard Kipling (1896) first edition, Doctor Ox by Jules Verne (1874) first edition, The Magnificent Ambersons (1918) by Booth Tarkington first edition, and Daniel Webster's works with associated ephemera. This is just a sampling of the material in 140 boxes of books that will be unpacked on July 13th. We are accepting consignments for the September "pick" book auction. Call Tom at 1-860-908-8067 to discuss your books or visit our website: www.cfabookauction.com to learn more about CFA Book Auctions.
