

CAPE COD ANTIQUING GUIDE 2015

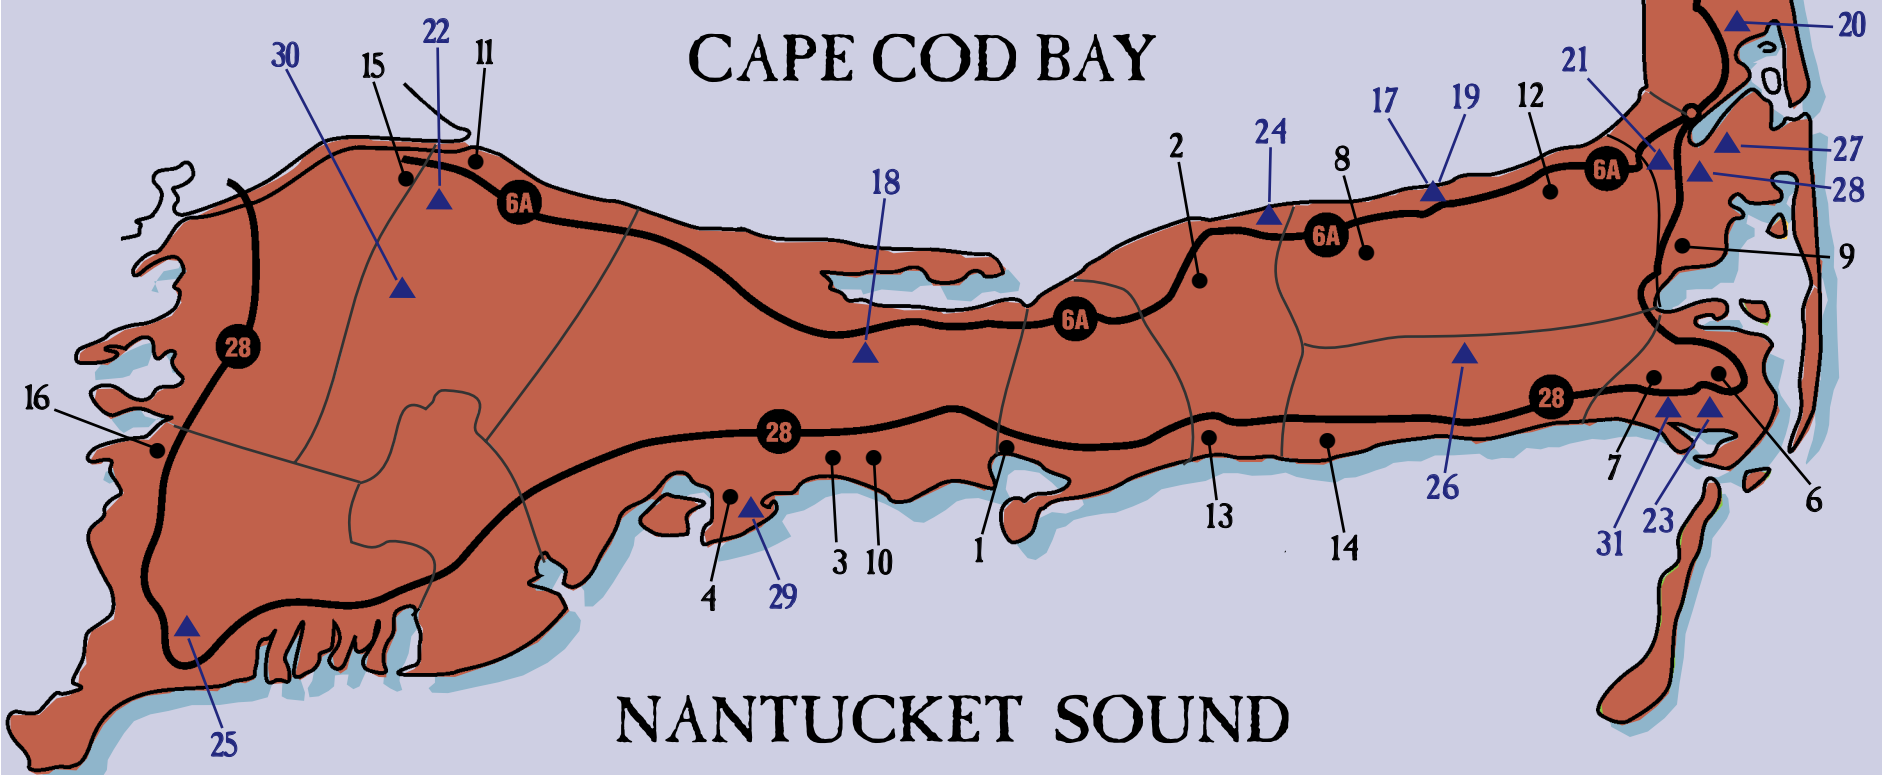

Cape Cod is so much more than just "sun, sand and surf." Among its many features it has the reputation as "an antiquing destination." Whether you are an astute collector, fledgling "newbee," or an occasional browser, the Cape offers a wide variety of antiquing experiences. The Cape Cod Antique Dealers Association (CCADA) represents over 120 individual dealers, group shops and auctioneers, all of whom invite you to travel the scenic roadways of the Cape. Spend time in both individual shops as well as the large, multi-dealer group shops. Plan your visit around the many high end shows, featuring quality dealers from both the Cape and across the region.

So save this 2015 Guide to help you plan a visit to the Cape this coming Spring, Summer or Fall. Enjoy our natural beauty and fine hospitality, and visit the members you see pictured in the Guide. Plan to attend one of the many shows or auctions listed in the Calendar of Events. Try not to miss the CCADA's Summer Indoor 2 Day Show. Scheduled for Friday night, July 31st from 5pm to 8pm and Saturday, August 1st from 10am to 4pm it will feature 42 of New England's best dealers. It is being held at Nauset Middle School, Rt 28, Orleans, MA.

We hope to see you there!

President, CCADA

WARNING!
Rare Book Pox!

HIGHLY CONTAGIOUS!

There is no known cure! Infection is characterized by dizziness, sweaty palms and compulsive reading of rare books catalogues accompanied by apnea and lust. Further symptoms are: loss of home living space and self-induced poverty. If infected, do not see your doctor, but seek aid from your local antiquarian book dealer, who, while unable to affect a cure, can provide symptomatic relief.
