SPECIAL SHOW SECTION ★★☆☆ MidWeek Antiques Show

Welcome To MidWeek
Show Opens Tuesday, August 4, At Everett Arena

CONCORD, N.H. — New Hampshire and the month of August have become a historic marriage celebrated by collectors and dealers in Americana and Continental antiques from all over the country, and this is your invitation to MidWeek.

Since our move to the Everett Arena in Concord, our show has continued to present talented antiques professionals plus many amenities designed to make your experience worthwhile and fun. With easy access off I-93, free parking, air-conditioned facility, Plycon onsite show shipper and excellent gourmet catering, we welcome your visit. But the desire to make MidWeek your show of choice does not end there, as we strive to keep you coming back year after year.

MidWeek, as we affectionately know it, started out over two decades ago and continues to bring you an exciting antiques experience with fresh material, excellent exhibitors and now two special show events.

“A Tisket A Tasket” American Baskets, will be our special show exhibit this year, displaying a diverse and colorful array of basketry in various mediums and periods from the MidWeek exhibitors’ private collections. The exhibit will be in showcases located at the front of the show, and we hope you will take time to view.

“The Sum of the Parts: Sculptural Assemblages,” by renowned dealer and contemporary artist John Sideli, will present new works of John’s imagination and creativity at its best. John’s art combines visually attractive found objects, parts and pieces of antiques often framed or standalone works creatively titled to reflect a particular emotion or response. John’s gallery display will be at the front of the show where all works will be available to add to your collection.

As the antiques business continues to expand its’ areas of interest to new collectors as well as seasoned connoisseurs, MidWeek invites our dealers to explore and display adventurous and punchy objects that will appeal to a broader market, keeping quality a high priori — come see what we have to offer.

MidWeek, located just 20 minutes north of Manchester, will once again be on Tuesday, August 4, from 1 to 6 pm and Wednesday, August 5, 10 am to 5 pm. Visit www.barnstar.com for more information.

Start Your Week With A Great Antique at MidWeek!

Sincerely yours,
Frank Gaglio

Sculpture Assemblages By John Sideli

Inspiration comes from many places and for antiques dealer and artist John Sideli, the flow is endless. John’s display of recent works will encompass 24 feet of exhibition space at the front of the show and will be certain to inspire the creativity in us all as color, form, surface and theme dazzle the imagination. John’s use of objects, juxtaposition, frames and visual acuity is unsurpassed. Meeting the artist will add to your MidWeek experience. John’s gallery is located in Wiscasset, Maine, where you can view more of his work. For more information, visit www.johnsidelifineart.com.

Early English Ceramics • American Country in Paint

Watch Samplers, those tiny, elusive needlework rarities stitched in the early to mid 19th century by loving wives and daughters for the gentleman to carry inside a pocket watch: a love token visible with every check of the time of day! Here are 2 wonderful examples: 1) Cross stitch on linen "Jesus Wept" with the initials "J. W." 2" in diameter; 2) Crewel on silk floral spray, retaining good color, 2" in diameter. Both pieces are mounted on linen and framed appropriately.
