This exciting two-day auction will offer some of the most rare and desirable antique dollhouses, dolls and miniatures since the Washington Toy and Miniatures Museum was sold over ten years ago. An outstanding number of antique British dollhouses and rare American dollhouses that seldom come to market include spacious early Victorian villas and townhouses featured in memorable magazine articles, in addition to a large Silber & Fleming type townhouse, Bliss house, German roombox, large Mystery House, a very rare TynieToy Colonial Mansion and unique carpenter-built antique houses from both sides of the Atlantic. A remarkable Spanish townhouse with a fascinating and creative double-layered façade will be sold fully furnished with rare 18th century dolls and furnishings.

We are excited to present rare and desirable dolls include a generous assortment of early Grodner dolls, tuck-combs and other jointed wooden dolls, plus beautifully dressed china heads in all sizes, Simon & Halbig Little Women and other dollhouse dolls, French mignonette and small jointed bisque children.

An outstanding assortment of elegant Rock & Graner beds, cabinets, chairs, settees and very rare Evans & Cartwright metal furniture comprise only a portion of the fine antique furniture and accessories that include Ellis, Britton & Eaton, Schneegass, Biedermeier, colorful lithographed furniture, and a truly massive number of Erhard & Sohne ormolu framed pictures and accessories. Very rare antique German Boule canopy beds, English half-testers, Limoges porcelain, lithophanes, Schweizer Christmas tree, Bristol glassware, petitpoint carpets,

Meyers sterling, antique leather-bound books, treenware, Austrian bronzes, Bing and Maerklin kitchen furniture, numerous ormolu chandeliers, gilt soft metal lighting and accessories and many items from memorable museums that have closed in recent years. Plus the largest collection of TynieToy furniture and accessories we have ever offered including Windsor chairs, garden furnishings, fire screens and other rarities.

The Mary March Charleston House by artist James Polzois, an outstanding example of scale architectural modeling, will be sold with letter of provenance from the artist. Mary decorated her house with extraordinary pieces by John Hodgson, John Davenport, Patrick Puttock and more that will be sold separately. There will be a large collection of rare Vienna bronzes from the Joseph Gray personal collection, many of his one of a kind beautifully handcrafted tools, an outstanding wooden tool box fitted with woodworking tools, guns, rare miniatures by legendary Frank Matter, two hundred hand-carved pipes, decorative boxes, so much more!
