SPECIAL SHOW SECTION

Welcome To Fall Antiques at Rhinebeck

A Columbus Day Weekend Tradition!

Fall in the Hudson Valley has always been synonymous with festivities at the Dutchess County Fairgrounds, and this Columbus Day Weekend no event is more anticipated than Fall Antiques at Rhinebeck.

More than 100 dealers from across the country load their vehicles with fantastic finds from period Americana to Midcentury Modern heading for Rhinebeck and our exciting show.

If you haven't been to Rhinebeck recently, now is the time to join us.

Our show has gotten rave reviews, as collectors, decorators, architects and designers fill the aisles exploring three buildings of exceptional antiques, art, jewelry, vintage wares and decorations.

This year our fall show is proud to introduce a new book titled A Very Vintage Christmas, Holiday Collecting, Decorating & Celebrating by author and TV host of Flea Market Minute, Bob Richter, who will be on hand Saturday, October 8, from noon to 2 pm to autograph your copy at the show. Bob's personality, charm and knowledge is refreshing and endearing as he explores the holiday cherished by children and adults alike.

Our new show entrance on Mulberry Street worked out very well last spring as patrons found the general and mobility challenged parking convenient and not having to traverse the steep hill of years past much easier.

Customer convenience has always been a Barn Star trademark, and we are pleased to welcome back Meticulous Incorporated as our show shipper. Brandon, Mike and Josh will be on hand to offer their services, from packing to shipping, located on your show program.

Our complimentary Merchandise Pick Up Tent will once again serve customers with additional staff added to the system, making your wait time shorter and assistance loading your purchases...our pleasure.

Online Ticket Sales were a new show feature last spring, and with its success, we are offering that feature once again this fall. Visit www.barnstar.com and purchase your tickets now so there is no waiting in line!

The food court will once again be serving delicious food and beverages so you can stay energized for hours of antiquing and fun!

As always, we are proud to offer color glossy decorating magazines from our show sponsors, as well as antiques newspapers and subscription discounts! Visit our courtesy table for upcoming antiques show cards and flyers.

Aside from all the amenities our Fall Show offers, the one thing that keeps customers coming back is the diversity, authenticity and originality of the material offered at Rhinebeck. But don't just take our word for it, come join us, bring a friend and see for yourself...Your Antiques Adventure Continues at Fall Antiques at Rhinebeck.

Sincerely yours,
Frank, Lynn and Ryan

A Very Vintage Christmas

Globe Pequot is proud to announce the release of A Very Vintage Christmas: Holiday Collecting, Decorating and Celebrating, by Bob Richter, who will be at the show on Saturday, October 8, from noon to 2 pm.

Vintage ornaments, lights, decorations, cards and wrapping all conjure up happy memories of Christmases past and serve as tangible mementos of holidays shared with family and friends. Finding these objects, decorating with them and sharing them with others brings an instant feeling of comfort and joy. A Very Vintage Christmas offers a 360-degree look at holiday décor in America and gives suggestions on how to make vintage finds work at home.

Bob Richter's passion for collecting holiday décor began as a boy. One day his father, who would take him to auctions, handed Bob a box of beautiful ornaments, including a blue jay, a Santa Claus, some bells and other special figures, and said, "It's time you started collecting something and I know you like Christmas." So collect he did — and still does. That original box has grown into a collection that hovers at around 2,500 and counting.

HOLDEN ANTIQUES, Sherman, Conn. & Naples, Fla. — Wonderfully clothed ventriloquist dummy.
