

KAMELOT AUCTIONS PRESENTS

◇ THE MAYBROOK MANSION ESTATE ◇

TUESDAY, MARCH 22ND

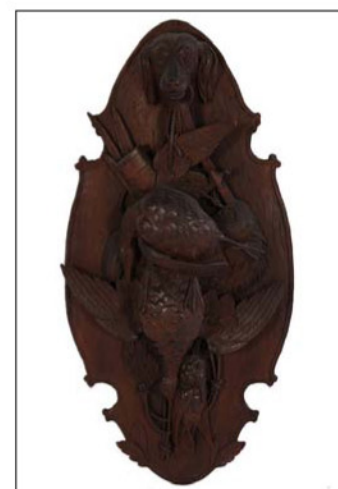

Kamelot's sale will feature the art and antiques collection from the former home of liquor baron, real estate developer, and art collector Henry Clay Gibson. Pictured below are items from the Henry C. Gibson house, 1612 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, PA circa 1870; demolished 1928. Many of the items are illustrated in the book, The Opulent Interiors of the Gilded Age.

Oak dining table attributed to Daniel Pabst, extends to 19'10"

2 of 16 oak griffin carved dining chairs attributed to Daniel Pabst

One of a pair of 47" walnut plaques circa 1860

Long lost set from the Henry C. Gibson house in Philadelphia

Four Aubusson tapestry panels inscribed Manu Royale d'Aubusson and dated 1741, 11'4" x 4'5" each

19th century Chinese 6'2" x 10'6"

PREVIEW: MARCH 16-19 & MARCH 21ST from 10AM – 5PM

4700 WISSAHICKON AVE, PHILADELPHIA, PA 19144

T: 215.438.6990 F: 215.438.6992

WWW.KAMELOTAUCTIONS.COM

Lic.AH001803