

ONSITE ANTIQUES AUCTION

Friday, July 8th at 10am – In Two Sessions

144 Freedom Street – Hopedale, MA

The contents of the longtime home of William & Nancy Gannett
William was the grandson of Eben Draper, former Governor of Massachusetts and President of the Draper Company

Session One – Discovery Auction begins at 10:00am

The first session will begin with three hours of uncatalogued discoveries; you must be present to view and bid on these items.

Session Two – Online Cataloged Auction begins at 1:00pm

These items are available for viewing and bidding thru LiveAuctioneers.com. Absentee and phone bidding will be available for this session.

Over 600 Lots to be Sold in one day | All items are available for preview auction day at 8am.

We invite you to spend the day with us at this beautiful estate. This will be an exciting sale!
 The house is full of antiques and custom furnishings passed down through many generations of the Draper Family.
 Something for every taste and budget!

One of many Quilts

Selection of Sterling Silver

1940 Lincoln Zephyr Continental Convertible

Russian Kovch

English

Sevres

Rose Mandarin

Asian Eterge

Dunlap

Andirons

C.S. Graham-Yosemite Valley

O'Connell and Bateman

US Civil War

Navajo

Chilkat

One of many Oriental Rugs

Frederic Remington o/c

N.S. Gannon Gown

Laura C. Hills

M. Meucci

Tiffany

Macheret Gown

Simon Willard

Group of Indo Persian Miniatures

John McInnis
 AUCTIONEERS • APPRAISERS

Visit our website for times, photos, terms and more information at:

mcinnisauctions.com

800-822-1417 Mass Auc Lic# 770

Gov. Shute by Peter Pelham

J.S. Copley

William Churchill