

Bunch Auctions opens the fall season with a decorative & fine arts sale featuring 350 lots from the estate of Daniel Dietrich, II. Dietrich was a well-known philanthropist, art collector, and patron of the arts living on the Main Line of Philadelphia. He was on the board of the Institute of Contemporary Art at the University of Pennsylvania and before his passing in September of 2015 gave a gift of $10 million to ICA. We are pleased to offer 218 lots of mostly 20th century modern art as well as 132 lots of decorative arts from the Dietrich collection. The Dietrich Collection has been joined with 350+ lots of powerful estate consignments including fine porcelain such as Meissen & KPM, Mintons pate sur pate, Amphora figural sculptures, cultural collectibles, civil war era handguns & accoutrements, impressive clocks, bronze & statuary, sculpture, jade, 100+ lots of Asian arts, 50+ lots of fine furniture, 42 lots of silver, 16 lots of sponge & spatterware, 48 Louis Jonas carvings, and much more.
