This is Part II of the 23 room Brooklyn, N.Y. estate hoard along with select estate items throughout the Hudson Valley.

From Brooklyn comes an incredible offering of early pond boats, half hulls and models, some over 70" long, some with early paint, and highlighted by Guy Lombardo's hand crafted copper 48" long ship, name The Welfare. Also from Brooklyn are 50 lots of trains, highlighted by the Carl Burke Smith collection of handmade trains, most in fitted cases. To be sold as one lot. Over 100 paintings and prints will be offered, incl. over 50 from a Woodstock, N.Y. Artist's estate and 60 paintings by Calmon Ginsberg, (a noted NYC Businessman & Artist, these were in a NYC Storage facility for years). Many listed Artist's. Furniture will have Country, Formal, Mid Century and Industrial. A large collection of porcelain from a local Doctor's estate will include Royal Copenhagen, Herend, Meissen, Nymphenburg, and others. Also early toys, lighting, sterling silver, lighting, oriental rugs, Asian, decorative accessories, clocks, display cases, EPHEMERA (early photography, postcards, advertising, catalogs, and more), instruments, 1920's Louis Vuitton leather trunk, architectural, iron garden furniture, Friedmann Brothers mirrors, stoneware, Steiff animals, rare Devoursney Fire Lantern, and more... Please keep checking back...
