

Mark Catesby & Georg Ehret, Magnolia Grandiflora, from the first edition of Natural History of Carolina, London, 1731-43. Estimate $5,000 to $7,000.

Robert Laurie & James Whittle, The Complete East-India Pilot, or Oriental Navigator, with 113 maps, London, 1797. Estimate $40,000 to $60,000.

John Miller, Illustratio Systematis Sexualis Linnaei, London, 1770-77. Estimate $15,000 to $20,000.

John James Audubon, Passenger Pigeon, Plate LXII, aquatint and engraving before color, London, 1829. Estimate $8,000 to $12,000.

Frederick de Wit, Belgii XVII Provinciarum Tabula, true first state wall map, Amsterdam, circa 1670. Estimate $10,000 to $15,000.

Thomas Shutter Boys, Original Views of London As It Is, de luxe issue, with 26 hand-colored lithographs, London, 1842. Estimate $5,000 to $7,500.

Petrus Plancius, The Spice Map, London, 1598. Estimate $20,000 to $30,000.

George Wesley Browning, collection of 134 sketches of natural history and landscape subjects, American West, 1880s-90s. Estimate $4,000 to $6,000.

Maps & Atlases, Natural History & Color Plate Books

DECEMBER 8

Specialist: Caleb Kiffer • caleb@swanngalleries.com

Preview: Dec 3, 12-5; Dec 5 to 7, 10-6; Dec 8, 10-12

104 East 25th St, New York, NY 10010 • tel 212 254 4710

SWANNGALLERIES.COM