‘Master Of The Maritime’ James E. Buttersworth Exhibit

COTUIT, MASS. — The Cahoon Museum of American Art will present “Master of the Maritime: James E. Buttersworth,” which will be on view June 28–August 20.

This exhibition celebrates the talent and subject matter of marine painter James Edward Buttersworth (1817–1894), as well as his importance to American maritime history and art.

One of the foremost American ship portraitists of the Nineteenth Century, Buttersworth’s paintings are known for their meticulous detail, dramatic settings and grace in movement.

“Master of the Maritime” features significant paintings by Buttersworth from the museum’s collection, from multiple private collections and an important group of Buttersworth masterpieces from the Mystic Seaport Museum. Also included are paintings by his father, maritime artist Thomas Buttersworth. The artworks in the exhibition feature famous yachts in action, scenes from America’s Cup races, clippers, steamers, other marine craft and scenes at sea with dramatic atmospheric conditions.

This is the first time a major group of Buttersworth’s paintings has been shown together on Cape Cod, and the museum is offering this exhibition to regional audiences who are enthusiastic about the genre of marine painting.

The Cahoon Museum of American Art is at 4676 Falmouth Road. For information, www.cahoonmuseum.org or 508-428-7581.

“Yacht Race Off Sandy Hook,” James E. Buttersworth (1817–1894), oil on canvas, Collection of Alan Granby and Janice Hyland.

“Committee Boat and Cat Boats,” James E. Buttersworth, oil on canvas, collection of the Cahoon Museum of American Art.

CAPE COD ANTIQUING GUIDE 2017

Cape Cod is so much more than just “sun, sand and surf.” Among its many features it has the reputation as “an antiquing destination.” Whether you are an astute collector, fledgling “newbie,” or an occasional browser, the Cape offers a wide variety of antiquing experiences. The Cape Cod Antique Dealers Association (CCADA) represents over 120 individual dealers, group shops and auctioneers, all of whom invite you to travel the scenic roadways of the Cape. Spend time in both individual shops as well as the large, multi-dealer group shops. Plan your visit around the many high-end shows, featuring quality dealers from both the Cape and across the region.

So save this 2017 Guide to help you plan a visit to the Cape this coming Spring, Summer or Fall. Enjoy our natural beauty and fine hospitality, and visit the members you see pictured in the Guide. Plan to attend one of the many shows or auctions listed in the Calendar of Events. Try not to miss the CCADA’s two premier shows. The first is our “2nd Annual Spring Antique Show” being held Saturday, June 3rd. Featuring 30 quality New England dealers, it will be held at the Barnstable County Fairgrounds in Falmouth off Rt. 151. The second is our “47th Annual Summer Show” being held Saturday, August 12th. This year it will be a one day outdoor tented show featuring 30-plus dealers, all CCADA members. It is being held at Nauset Middle School, Rt 28, Orleans, Mass. For more information on these two shows or any of the other Cape shows, please check our website: CCADA.com or visit us on Facebook. We hope to see you here!
