Edward S. Curtis

May 20th sale of Fine Estate Items and Asian Antiques

Fine Estate Jewelry

Featuring fine art, oriental rugs, estate jewelry, historical items, antiques, a selection of toys from a local collection, Asian art and antiques from several estates, and more. Many items are fresh to the market including 16 Oriental rugs with some fine antique pictorial examples. Also from the same estate is a nice assortment of fine jewelry highlighted by a Victorian diamond brooch with 78 diamonds, totaling approximately 4.5 carats.

This sale also features two carved Rosewood figures by Jacques Adnet, made in Paris circa 1928 as well as a Charles Levier painting that has been in the same family since its original purchase. Also in this sale is a rare presentation cane gifted to Andrew Jackson by Fath-Ali Shah Qajar, the second Shah of Persia, with family provenance included. Other items of historical interest are a rare silk 38 Star US/GAR parade flag in five colors and an Orotone of Zane Grey by Edward S. Curtis.

Included in over 100 lots of antique toys is a notable example of a boxed Lehmann Man-Da-Rin in exceptional condition, a large selection of automotive themed toys, and more. In the same section of the sale is a fine clamshell Mutoscope, a rare and unusual country store case, and a five-color porcelain sign from Foster's Freeze.

Asian antiques in this sale are more moderately priced than in our bi-annual sales, but this sale still offers a selection of quality items including Ming porcelain, jade carvings, snuff bottles, cinnabar, Chinese paintings, calligraphies, and more.

Sale begins at 10:00 AM in our new gallery in Ashburn, Virginia
