36th Chester County Antiques & Arts Show March 9–11 To Benefit Historical Center

EXTON, PENN. — The Chester County Historical Society (CCHS) is widely respected as one of the Commonwealth's premier history museums and educational centers, playing an important role in history education, cultural diversity and economic impact for the Southeastern Pennsylvania region. In its 36th year, the Chester County Antiques Show is CCHS's largest community and fundraising event.

CCHS's 36th Annual Antiques & Arts Show, presented by PECO, will take place March 10–11, with a preview party March 9, at Church Farm School, a new location and earlier show dates for this event.

Church Farm School is an easily accessible location, offers spaciousness, natural light and a well-maintained facility to create the perfect setting for the dealers and their fine quality offerings. The theme of this year's event, "Past, Present & Future" will feature exceptional Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century American and Continental furniture, rugs, paintings, ceramics, glass, silver, jewelry, needlework and other decorative arts.

The preview party on Friday, March 9, opens at 5 pm for early admission at $200 per person and 6 pm admission at $150 per person. General admission, $15, is Saturday, 10 am to 6 pm, and Sunday, 11 am to 5 pm. Children 10 and under are free.

The Church Farm School is at 1001 E. Lincoln Highway. For more information, 610-692-4800 or www.chestercohistorical.org.

PINE GROVE FORGE AND BRIDGE

Signed GC for George Cope (1855-1929) and dated 1884. The same year a covered bridge was built across the Octoraro Creek (separating Lancaster and Chester Counties) by the Pine Grove Forge. Oil on canvas, 24" x 32"
