

A note to our buyers: For over 200 years the Rathbun and Gillette family lovingly protected and preserved their family antique treasures on this 19th-century farm that borders the Erie Canal and the NY Central Railroad. This once-in-a-lifetime auction consists of 1000s and 1000s of family passed down small collections never for sale until now.

Many people have tried to buy items here, but no one has been successful.

The late Beverly Rathbun Gillette was the family matriarch and the founder of the Schuyler, NY, historical society and the preserver of all the family antiques.

The important history of this English family descends from John and Priscilla Alden of the Mayflower to a family member (Basil Rathbone) that was the star of the Sherlock Holmes movies in London, England. Rathbun-Rathbone-Rathburn are all descendants of the same family with similar names.

See details of the family tree on Auctionzip.com ID# 3542. Members of the family have fought in all wars from the American Revolution, including Captain John Peck Rathbun who fought under John Paul Jones as his first lieutenant in the revolution. We have from the family members items from the Civil War, WWI, and WWII wars in the auction (Uniforms, Swords, etc.)

Besides important items there are collections of antiques as follows:

Tools, pens, political buttons, crocks and jugs, postcards, trade cards, advertising signs, motorcycles, frames, prints, paintings, engravings, sterling, gold, and costume jewelry, buttons, clocks, watches, glass, china, toys, children's furniture, guns, Civil War, WWI, WWII, musical instruments, photos, powder horns, furniture, cupboards, lamps, sewing machines, fabric, clothing, quilts, plates, coins, stereoviewers and cards, dolls, marbles, advertising boxes, cans, bottles, miniatures, tins, wicker chairs, rockers, stands, tables, radios, photographs. Books, handwritten documents, carnival glass, blown glass, railroad items, miniature vases, knives, kitchen utensils and gadgets, canes, umbrellas, arrowheads, bells, stoves, horse tack, trunks and blanket chests, steamer trunks, posters, nudes blocker cards, marble-top furniture, Nazi Germany flags, iron banks, violins, photos, MIB truck and tractor miniatures, advertising mirrors, Hess MIB trucks, pipes, milk bottles, watch fobs, Victorian jewelry, and much more.
