

WOLFS

The Dean Frank Nelson Wilcox (1887-1964)

Stevedores, Ohio River, c. 1920

EXHIBITION AND SALE

Opening
September 19th, 6-8pm
on view through
November 30th

A century later WOLFS exhibits the works of one of the Cleveland School's greatest artists - Frank Nelson Wilcox, known as "The Dean of Cleveland School Painters".

This comprehensive exhibition will encompass over 200 works by Frank Nelson Wilcox (1887-1964) and provides an opportunity to view fresh, perfectly preserved examples of remarkable work by one of the most highly regarded watercolorists of his generation.