Preview: By appointment beginning June 17th

Smith's Auction Gallery- 1064 RT 12A Plainfield NH

Robert (Bob) and Mary Fraser were dear friends, passionate collectors and all around wonderful people. It's bitter sweet to bring their life long collection to auction as we and the antique community will truly miss them. This will be one of those old fashion Vermont country collections with something for all people and budgets. A brief overview below, see the entire catalog online at www.wsmithauction.com.

Session 1: Important ram weathervane; other weathervanes; Q.A. NH maple highboy; curly maple Q.A maple tall chest; several early painted floor cupboards; hanging cupboards; tavern tables; early blanket boxes; early Windsor and other chairs; country small harvest and sawbuck tables; early dry sink; early candle-stands and more—Early pantry and other boxes: Bob's collection of Historical flasks; Mary's collection of Baily coin silver; sampler and mourning pictures; early portraits; decorated stoneware; early iron and lighting; engraved powder horn; early hooked rugs; "Tin Shop" and antique signs; painted and burl bowls; treen and pease ware; still banks; quilts; early baskets; hat boxes; silhouettes; decoys and carved birds; reference books; silver and gold jewelry and much more.

Session 2: The collection of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glaser, Greenwich CT. Claire Tracy and Frank were avid collectors of country Americana since the 1960's, the last 20 years their passion was decorating their historic country Greenwich home with the appropriate primitive antiques. We have moved the collection to our gallery in Plainfield NH to be sold in session 2 on July 1st. This will be the perfect complement to the Fraser collection. Preview begins June 17th by appointment.
