

A Gentleman's Pursuits

April 27, 2021 | Chicago

Featuring Property from the Collection of a Gentleman, Atlanta, Georgia, this collector's passions include Renaissance Revival, Neoclassical, Art Nouveau and Aesthetic Movement furniture and decorative objects, with other areas of interest such as American and European Impressionism, Civil War tintypes and early photography, antiques, taxidermy, advertising, billiards, music and more.

Works of art by Frederick MacMonnies, Harriet Frishmuth, Aldro Hibbard and others compliment the collections of other consignors including canes/walking sticks, display cases and cash registers, leather bindings and sculpture.

FEATURED

A 1940s Rock-Ola Model F Juke Box,
In Working Condition
Estimate: $3,000 - 5,000

CONTACT

Benjamin Fisher
Director, Senior Specialist
American Furniture, Folk & Decorative Arts
benjaminfisher@hindmanauctions.com

HINDMAN

HindmanAuctions.com

