

The background of the entire banner is a painting by Ann Lofquist titled 'Deerfield, 1994'. It depicts a lush rural landscape in autumn. On the left, a large tree with vibrant red and orange leaves stands prominently. The middle ground is filled with green grass and scattered trees with yellow and orange foliage. In the background on the right, a red barn with a white roof is visible, partially obscured by more trees. The overall style is impressionistic with visible brushstrokes.
