

WITHINGTON AUCTIONS, INC.

Presented by NEW HAMPSHIRE AUCTIONS AND APPRAISALS, LLC

IMPORTANT AMERICANA AUCTION

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2021 at 10AM • PREVIEW AT 8-10AM

American Legion Hall • 538 Main Street • Hillsborough, New Hampshire

ADDITIONAL PREVIEWS — 41B Main Street • Goffstown, New Hampshire

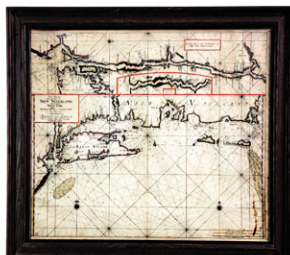

October 30, 10am-4pm • November 2 and 3, 10am-4pm • Or by appointment

Very rare 1st edition Map known as the Montresor Map of New York ordered by General Gage in case NY rebelled after the odious Stamp Act

Famous Beaver Map by Herman Moll depicted the East Coast with a side inset of beavers on the march

Another famous Dutch cartographer, Johannes van Keulen, with the first map showing the Hudson River all the way up to Albany circa 1700

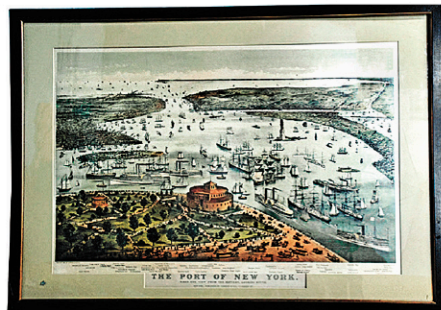

This rare 1795 map of Washington DC has hand printed updates of three buildings as the city grew after 1800

One of a kind map by 12-year-old Elizabeth Simmons of Duxbury, MA, in 1830 with original tiger maple frame

A colored roll map of CT by Willis Thrall in 1831 with original rollers

Currier & Ives lithograph of the Port of NY dated 1892 with the Statue of Liberty present

Currier & Ives scarce lithograph of the City of NY dated 1876 with superb hand coloring

Poster announcing a balloon flight in 1831 by Charles Durant, first American Balloonist, launching from Castle Gardens NY amid 20,000 spectators

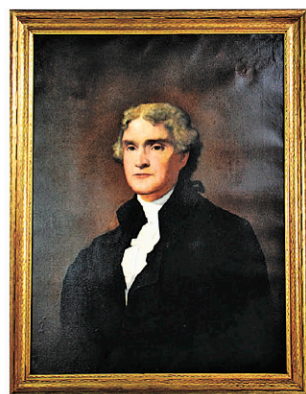

Declaration of Independence printed on cloth. Printed in 1821.

Unique cloth print of the Upper Ferry Bridge, a record-setting timber bridge across the Schuylkill River

Large portrait of Washington after Gilbert Stuart, circa 1825 with fabulous frame

A rare portrait of Jefferson circa 1830

Very fine portrait of Hamilton by artist, George A. Tompkin, based on the original by John Trumbull

4 Liverpool creamware jugs of the first four Presidents including the rare Jefferson. Each jug was created for the inaugurals of each President

Reverse painting on glass (Eglomise) of Washington done in Germany for export to America circa 1820

Superb reverse painting of Lafayette

Reverse painting of Washington wearing the order of Cincinnati

George Washington terracotta bust attributed to the famous French sculptor Houdon

1844 Muster of the NY 1st Division Artillery including the famed Washington Greys

GAR Banner

www.withingtonauction.com

41 B Main Street • Goffstown, NH 03048 • 603-384-1733

Bidding done on LiveAuctioneers, phone or absentee bids, along with in-person live.

NH Auctioneer License #4041

Fine Effingham Embree tall clock exhibiting a distinctive eagle. His NY clocks are in the White House and Winterthur

Rare NH Candlestand with original painted decorations circa 1800

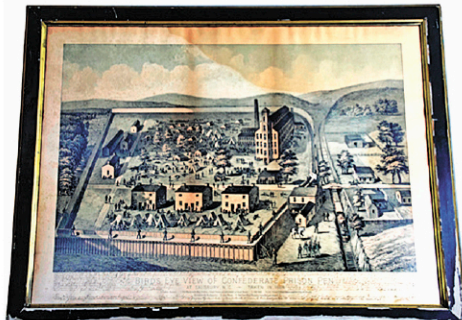

Rhode Island card table possibly John Townsend

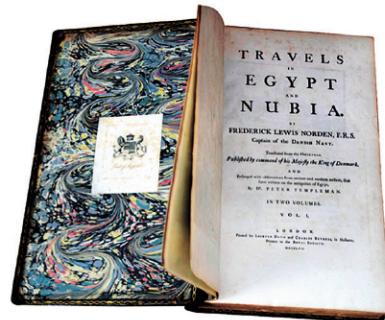

VT grain painted card table

Important John Needles marble top pier table, Baltimore 1825

Salisbury NC prison where Pvt William Ryan penned his history of captivity. Ryan later became famous for his compendium of fiddle tunes

Frederick Norden's "Travels to Egypt and Nubia" printed in 1757 with 159 detailed sketches and owned by the Earl of Sheffield, a renowned cricket enthusiast

Center NE Sewing box circa 1830 has great original painted surface and interior. The Sewing box on right is figured cherrywood with burl walnut and inlays

Extremely rare 1826 sun dial made for Nathaniel Neilson of Springfield by Robert Palmer

1 of several garden Buddhas

Fine set of Liverpool creamware

Trade sign for a Saws Disston

One of seven boxes. Possibly a McIntire

Rare and important pair of painted NY Federal Charis – belonging to the same set exhibited in the NY Metropolitan Museum of Art

Signed Tiffany Harp Floor Lamp with lily pad feet

Pair of stone garden lions

American Kettle Stand with original black and gilt surface

Massachusetts Sheraton Side Board in Sacks Vol. II

Neoclassical Girandole Mirror

Seymour Mahogany Dining Table & Set of 4 New York, carved, eagle-back, Federal Chairs on a Heriz

Early Pike Barometer

This auction will feature 200 lots of exceptional quality to include landscape paintings, primitives, early American furniture and choice reproductions, 18th century woodenware, Hester Bateman silver coffee pot, garden statuary, Civil War documents, Argand lamps and exceptional mirrors to include a rare Boston Neo-Classical looking glass, a girandole mirror and a large Eglomise mirror.