Fall Fine Estates Auction

Tuesday, October 18th at 5:30PM

50 Main Street North, Woodbury, CT 06798

Our October 18th Fall Fine Estates Auction features property from several estates, including mid-century modern furniture from the Estate of Adolph S. Cavallo, a former museum curator and author of numerous books on early textiles and tapestries; important English furniture and decorations from a Greenwich, CT estate, including items attributed to Gillows from the design book of Thomas Chippendale; decorative arts including an early maritime woolwork and an oil on canvas of Santa Barbara, California by Thomas Patty from a collector in Litchfield, CT; items from a New Canaan, CT estate, including a rare and unique English campaign metamorphic game table; sterling silver from Danbury and Middlebury, CT collections; a group of Flora Danica porcelain wares from a European collector; and nineteenth century furniture and decorations from a Brooklyn Heights brownstone, including an important large scale Adam style carved and gilded neoclassical overmantle mirror.

The auction will be posted for live bidding Live Auctioneers, Invaluable, and BidSquare, and phone and in-house absentee bidding will also be available.
