Millea Bros. 3-day Fall Select auction dazzles with blue chip modern art, a historic sale of 18th c. porcelains, and a renowned collection of Tribal artifacts. Top lots include two authenticated Alexander Calder gouache paintings, and a Jean Arp bronze deaccessioned from a renowned art foundation. Exceptional Old Masters to Post-Impressionist works from 565 Park Avenue include a life-size Circle of Velazquez oil portrait, a 17th c. oil panel by Pieter de Hooch, and the rarest prints by Toulouse-Lautrec, Matisse, and Degas. A once-a-generation single-owner sale of the finest 18th c. English and Continental porcelains include 175 lots of the rarest figural, serving and center pieces by Chelsea, Worcester, Bow, and early Bottgre Meissen. An extensive collection of ancient to antique Chinese & Korean objects features 50 works from the estate of Soho pop artist Lewis Stein, including Imperial porcelains and a monumental early Ming wood carving. Our third and final sale of African, Oceanic and Native American artifacts from the Martin Wright Collection includes mostly 19th c. examples, many with Klejman Gallery or museum provenance. Exceptional Modern Design from an important Peter Marino Palm Beach commission features a phenomenal c. 1930 Jean Dunand lacquered bed, and modern and Art Deco inspired designs by Peter Marino. Other highlights include a custom 1930s TH Robsjohn-Gibbings lotus console, ceramics and furniture by Gio Ponti, period Wiener Werkstatte furniture, Chihully glass, and a group of American Studio Craft deaccessioned from the Museum of Art and Design.
