

CONNECTICUT RIVER BOOK AUCTION

will hold a LIVE and IN-PERSON BOOK AUCTION on JANUARY 6th, 2023 at the South Congregational Church located at 949 Main Street in South Glastonbury, CT 06073.

Inspection begins at noon with the auction starting at 6 pm.

It may be cold outside but the 200 plus lots of history, art, fiction, and ephemera we have should warm the souls of book enthusiasts across the country.

For those with an interest in history there is a Robert F. Kennedy signed copy of Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. A Biography examining this civil rights leader's life and a first edition of Kennedy's The Enemy Within with a RFK signed letter. There are also limited editions of Jenkins The Most Remarkable Texas Book Fourteen Hundred and 91 Days in the Confederate Army with a Leaf from the Original Printing and Kelly & Howe's Miles Good-year First Citizen of Utah Trapper, Trader and California Pioneer. Students of the Underground Railroad will be interested in Pattit's first person account Sketches in the History of the Underground Railroad Comprising Many Thrilling Incidents of the Escape of Fugitives from Slavery. Then there is the disturbing three volume Texas legislature investigatory hearings into a special group of Texas "Loyalty Rangers" that may have been responsible for killing thousands of Hispanics from 1914 to 1919.

We continue to be rich in detective and mystery fiction much of it signed. To provide just two examples, there is a signed limited edition of Leonard's Bandits and first edition copies in dj of MacDonald's The End of the Night, Cancel All Our Vows and The Crossroads. Not a fan of detective stories, well then, we have first U.S. editions of Sabatini's rarely found The Sea-Hawk and The Trampling of the Lilies and two cased first edition copies of Hawthorn's The House of the Seven Gables. Still not enticed, then how do signed copies of Miller's Plain Girl, Albee's The Ballad of the Sad Cafe and Updike's Marry Me or first editions in dj of Mailer's The Naked and the Dead and Capote's In Cold Blood sound? Oh, and we almost forgot to mention the 6 volume Limited Editions Club publication of Tolstoy's War and Peace.

Are you a poetry or drama aficionado? If the answer to that question is yes then consider signed copies of Miller's The Creation of the World, Muldoon's Hay, Nemerow's Inside the Onion, Ginsberg's White Shroud Poems 1980-1985, and Simon's Lost in Yonkers.

Lastly, for lovers of illustration and fine printing we have a limited edition elephant folio copy of Marc Franz's 1917 Stella Peregrina, nine original pen and ink sketches done by Reginald Bathurst Birch most noted for his illustration of Little Lord Fauntleroy and a rarely found complete portfolio of Elma Pratt's Mexico in Color.
