

CONNECTICUT RIVER BOOK AUCTION

will hold a LIVE and IN-PERSON BOOK AUCTION on FRIDAY, MARCH 3rd, 2023
at the South Congregational Church located at 949 Main Street in South Glastonbury, CT 06073.

Inspection begins at noon with the auction starting at 6 pm.

With over 180 lots of history, fiction, art and 25 lots of ephemera, this promises to be a night of good fellowship and vigorous competition amongst attendees and absentee bidders.

For several auctions there have been many signed fiction lots and this evening is no different. The following are some of the signed 1st edition volumes that will be sold: Vonnegut's "Timequake," Crichton's "Disclosure," Roth's "The Anatomy Lesson," Robbins "Skinny Legs and All," Vidal's "The Second American Revolution and Other Essays," Conroy's "The Prince of Tides," and several works by Arthur Miller to name a few.

There are over 30 lots of history with Jenkins (1980) "The Most Remarkable Texas Book an Essay on W. W. Heartsill's Fourteen Hundred and 91 Days in the Confederate Army," of particular interest. This copy belonged to Steve Schuster who designed the book with correspondence with the publisher. Also in this auction is the 1772 French volume "Supplement au Voyage de M. de Bougainville; ou Journal d'un Voyage autour du Monde, Fait par MM. Banks & Solander, Anglois, en 1768, 1769, 1770, 1771," which happens to be the first French edition of Cook's Endeavour voyage in its original full leather boards. Speaking of sailing, we also have a later printing of Slocum's "Sailing Alone Around the World." What makes this copy of note is that it is signed by the author.

In the area of ephemera in addition to postcards, photos, and paper we have a unique friendship book put together over several months by a student attending Yale University in 1826. To solve the mystery of who might have conceived this friendship volume, you might want to acquire the wealth of signed and detective mystery books available for sale by such authors as Kaminsky, Block, Dorsey, McBain, Bruen, Leonard, Pollini and more.

Lastly, lovers of art will not be disappointed. Two of the many lots deserve special mention. The first is the "The Temple of Flora" by Thornton that the Folio Society republished in a limited edition in 2008. Housed in a clamshell case this is a lovely copy. The second lot is a limited signed edition by Holocaust survivor Lev Haas entitled "12 Puvodnich Litografii Z Nemeckych Koncentracnich Taboru." It is a powerful depiction of his time in the Nisko labor camp and later Auschwitz.

For more information on this 6 pm, Friday, March 3rd book auction to be held at the South Congregational Church,
949 Main Street,
South Glastonbury, CT 06073
visit ctriverbookauction.com or call Tom at 1-860-908-8067.