A note to our buyers:

We are pleased to announce one of the largest collections of Spatterware & Mochaware (250+ pieces) & primitives from the Hinkle Estate of Truxton, NY. The proceeds for those items will assist in benefiting their local 4H club; please bid accordingly with that in mind. The Hinkles were farmers & collectors, not dealers. Their passion for collecting is here to see, all unreserved.

Jeff Dehart, former owner of Conestoga Auctions (Now Hess Auctions) Appraised & cataloged all of the Spatterware & Mochaware. For inquiries regarding those pieces please contact Jeff at (717)468-1330. For ALL other questions please contact our office at (315) 561-9777.

Included in this sale is the Estate of Lt. Clarence H. Carney, who was a WWII, 2 Bronze Star Holder & Antique Collector. All of his medals, war relics and beautiful antiques will be sold here unreserved.

A historical estate from Brewerton, NY will also be included in this sale on April 15th, which consists of 180 lots of antiques that the family has collected for over the past 150 years to be sold for the first time.

This represents 1 year of gleaning only the finest antiques from numerous collections and estates. We look forward to your participation in this auction.
