

American Clock & Watch Auction

Bid Now! Online From Anywhere

Online Ending October 16 @ 8PM

The American Clock & Watch Museum in Bristol, CT has contracted with Absolute Auctions & Realty, Inc. to auction numerous time pieces and other objects that are either non-accessioned donations or deaccessioned items that do not fit in the museum's collecting policy. Items include an 1850 Chauncey Jerome shelf clock; Boardman & Wells shelf clock; Elisha Hotchkiss shelf clock; 1839 Collins & Co., Cranston RI shelf clock; Brewster & Brown shelf clock; four 20th C. George Dornes clocks; 19th C. Seth Thomas shelf clock; Acco Bristol Dynamaster Recorder and United Tech Serdex Circular Data Chart Recorder; numerous mantle clocks; several Regulator clocks; four large lots of watch parts; watchmaker tools; George Dornes wooden clocks; large lots of clock parts; numerous antique clock cases; antique mahogany music cabinet; 2 antique melodian pump organs; 2 piece school master's desk originally from the old Federal Hill School in Bristol, CT; 11 foot long antique spindle back Church bench/pew; and much more!

AARauctions.com