The Alan and Elaine Haid Collection

Starting their collecting journey together in 1967, Alan and Elaine Haid acquired the rarest and finest examples of waterfowl decoys they could find, always working to improve and refine their collection over the decades. Alan was a respected dealer, appraiser, author, and advisor to many major decoy collectors. The Haid's were staples at most of the decoy shows and auctions across the country for over a half century. The result of that amount of focus and time spent in one collecting field is a grouping of some of the rarest examples by many of the top artists in North America. This is an opportunity that shouldn't be missed.
