Millea Bros. 3-day Spring Select auction has dropped, with an important Contemporary Art collection offering over 75 major works, including museum exhibited pieces, by Adam Fuss, Daisy Youngblood, Donald Baechler, Tom Otterness, Susan Rothenberg and James Brown. Day 1 also presents art and artifacts from the estate of legendary artist Philip Pearlman, alongside Modern and Contemporary designs from a CPW penthouse. Items include period furniture by Jean-Michel Frank and Andre Sornay, custom contemporary designs by architect Annabell Seldorf, Picasso art glass, and a large group of rare modernist Georg Jensen silver. Other design highlights include works by Lucie Rie, Nakashima, Karl Springer, and lighting by Arredoluce, Fontana Arte, and Emile-Jacque Ruhlmann. Day 2 showcases property from the Estate of Barbara Walters, featuring objects acquired through a lifetime of travel, furnishings by Mario Buatta, and a library of signed books. The sale also includes superb Chinese porcelains and jades from a private Sutton Place, NYC collection, as well as Tiffany Studios lamps and rare examples of early Tiffany silver. Important American Chippendale furniture, and a large selection of Native American objects come from various collections including Apache baskets, rugs and a rare Tlingit ceremonial blanket. Day 3 presents artwork spanning Old Masters to Post-Impressionism, including drawings by Guercino and paintings by Courbet and Jean Dufy. Signed period Louis XVI furniture and decorative arts from 710 Park Avenue, and 550 Park Avenue, NYC, join notable pieces of 19th c. Oceanic and African art come from the collections of Martin and Faith-Dorian Wright and the collection of Karl Stirner.
