This will be an "Eclectic" spring auction, with wonderful estates throughout the Hudson Valley to New York City and New Jersey. Highlighting the sale will be the William "Bill" Berry collection of "Canine Artwork", with the majority being "SCOTTISH TERRIERS". He owned "Motherwell" Breeders in Parsippany, New Jersey. He sold President George and Laura Bush their two Scotty's and delivered them personally. He was known worldwide as "The Godfather of Scottish Terriers". His personal collection includes many paintings, etchings, engravings, bronzes, and other porcelains, glass, and silver Scotty's. May original works and prints by William Medcalf, Arthur Wardle, (2) Maud Earl, Marguerite Kirmse, Morgan Dennis, (3) Gustav Muss Arnolt, Marion Needham Krupp, Levon West, Edwin Megargee, Dorothy Hardcastle, Gladys Emerson Cook, Leon Danchin, Reuben Ward Binks, Henry Wilkinson, Joan Engle, Ruth Beardmore, Curt Meyer Eberhardt, Diana Thorne, Helene Friedman, Jean Ramsay, Lisa Balsie, Helen Wilson Sherman and others... (some illegible signatures), great selection of Scottish Terrier bronzes including many by E. Parsons. Plus, much more... also more artwork from the Albert Burnette Roberts estate in Hudson, New York. Plus, other paintings from estates, and important bronze of Nude Woman (fountain) by Harriet Whitney Frishmuth, plus other bronzes. Other categories will include a great collection of early books and ephemera from a Hyde Park, N.Y. estate, smoking pipes, large ICON collection, Inuit figures, Native American artifacts, sterling silver, nice selection of antique and modern designer furniture, decorative accessories, estate jewelry, selection antique dolls, collectibles, Barber Shop collection of pinback buttons, etc. From Scranton Pa. comes a wonderful autograph of important Civil War autographs and documents. Also, Civil War era pistols including Colt and Remington. Also, stoneware from stone house in Hudson Valley, art pottery, glassware, big dealer lots... lighting, clocks, early baseball bats, collection vintage blue jeans, and much more... Please keep watching as we are unloading boxes and more pick-ups...
