

Discover the Country's Largest, Most Vibrant Original
Native American and Tribal Art Show in Santa Fe:

Whitehawk Antique Indian & Ethnographic Art Show

In its 47th year, Whitehawk will bring together more than 120 of the most knowledgeable experts and thousands of select historic art objects from Indigenous cultures throughout the world, and a few select contemporary art highlights.

Two Special Exhibitions:

- Spirit Beings in Wood: the Vibrant Tradition of Hopi Katsina Carvings, 1880 to Present – curated by Barry Walsh, PhD.
- The Living Tradition of Chimayó Weaving – curated by the Spanish Colonial Arts Society, from the Nuevo Mexicano Heritage Arts Museum's collection. Sponsored by HALL.

August 8–11, 2025

Santa Fe Community Convention Center

WHITEHAWK
SHOWS.COM

MEDIA PARTNERS

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

BENEFICIARY

