

Greenwald Antiques presents

a magnificent estate sale | 400 Hunters Hollow Warren, Ohio. 44484

October 16th & 17th 10-6
October 18th 10-5
October 19th 10:30-5

This sale is a once in a generation opportunity to acquire important paintings, works on paper, garden sculpture, decorative arts, fine furnishings, antiques, etc. deliberately curated over a lifetime. The beautiful estate, once featured in Architectural Digest, remains largely intact. It is one of the best collections we have offered in our 75 year history. Select works from more than 100 artists including Clement Meadmore, Amedeo Modigliani, Fernand Léger, Marc Chagall, Andre Derain, Reginald Marsh, Raoul Dufy, Sophia Vari, Stuart Davis, Edouard Léon Cortès, Lhote, Man Ray, Pyotr Nilus, Chi Chen, John Raimonde, Georges Rouault, etc. are featured in the sale. The house is filled with fine furniture in impeccable condition from the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries. For your consideration, there is an exquisite array of porcelain by Royal Copenhagen (Flora Danica) and Herend's Chinese Bouquet (in rust) Sterling by Tiffany (including a tea and coffee service in the Chrysanthemum pattern), Christofle, Georg Jensen, etc. is available for a new generation of collectors. Further, the estate grounds offer a vast assortment of garden statuary, antique urns, garden fountains, finials, furnishings, etc.

This is not an auction, but a chance to purchase directly in person, by telephone, or online.

For more information:

greenwaldantiques.com/events | info@greenwaldantiques.com | 216.839.6100

Consider following us on Instagram

