Glass Vase

Featuring an 18th Century Oil of Figures in a Colonnade, a Winter Scene Oil on Board done by John Joseph Enneking, and an Albrecht Durer Woodcut. Other notable artists represented include Florence Putterman, Peter Max, Francoise Gilot, Bruce Helander, Louis Magre, Salvador Dali, Tom Savage, Luigi Loir, Eugene Henri Cauchois, Robert Philipp, Charles Fazzino, Robert Nisbet, Paul Cezanne, Francisco Goya, and more. Beyond fine art, there is also an exceptional selection of objects including a Wedgwood Fairyland Lustre Porcelain Octagonal Bowl, a Large Collection of Sterling Silver, Jaeger Le Coultre Atmos Mantle Clocks, a John Lotton Blown Art Glass Vase, Robert Wyland Sculptures, and a Monumental Amethyst Geode. Collectors will also find Old Master Paintings, 19th and 20th Century Japanese Woodblock Prints including works by Hasui and Hiroshige, Marine Art and Antiques including an amazing American Patriotic Woolwork, Lalique Glass, Fur Coats, and Rare Books—among them is Sebastian Brant's Navis Stultifera with Durer Engravings, The Book of Hours Simon Vostre 1515, and a French Emblemata Book by Goidtsenhoven 1613. Additional highlights include a Superb Collection of Estate Jewelry, Bronze Sculptures, a 19th Century Sevres Covered Porcelain Urn, Asian Antiquities, a Lifetime Stamp Collection, Herend Porcelain, Oriental Rugs, and much more. Bidding will be available in person and online—either directly on our own platform, or via LiveAuctioneers and Invaluable. The catalog can be previewed on our site now, and will be published on the secondary sites by October 24th!
